

Becky McCrary Speaks

Check list:

Audio/Visual/Electrical Equipment: Becky uses PowerPoint to emphasize key points and add visual appeal. Please provide an LCD projector and screen. She can provide her own laptop or flash drive, whichever is most convenient. A lavalier microphone is preferred, but a wireless handheld is acceptable. And she will need an electric fan. It doesn't matter what the temperature is outside. She needs the fan!

Room Set Up: Please provide a suitable speaking platform when audiences number 60 or more and a small table at the front of the room for water, visuals, etc. Half-rounds are best for training seminars. Classroom or theater is perfect for keynote presentations.

Handouts: If you request a handout, the master copy will be ready at least two weeks prior to the event.

Hotel Arrangements: Hotel accommodations are always guaranteed by and directly billed to the client. Becky requires a non-smoking room, king is preferred, but double is doable, preferably at the event site, guaranteed late arrival the night before.

Investment/Expenses: You will arrange the investment required to bring Becky to your event directly with her or her staff. One-half of the fee is payable with the signed contract. The balance of your investment is payable at your event.

Becky will arrange coach airfare typically 30 days in advance of your presentation. Air and ground transportation, all meals while traveling, parking, tolls are other examples of allowable expenses. You will receive an itemized expense form with receipts approximately one week after your event. Reimbursement is due upon receipt.
